For academic year 2010-2011, Darmasiswa Scholarship Programs will grant scholarships –including American youths - wishing to undertake study - non-degree programs - in one of the following fields: Indonesian language (Bahasa Indonesia), dance, music, arts and crafts in selected Indonesia universities/colleges teacher training centers. For those who intend to study and enroll a degree program at Indonesian universities, the Government of Indonesia also offers a six-month Indonesian language bridging course.

The scholarship recipients will have an opportunity to broaden their experience by living in a cross-cultural environment.
